

THE WOODLAND CONCERT.

FRANZ ABT.

Lightly and spiritedly.

1. Sir Spring will give a concert in his leaf - y for - est
 2. A man - u - script so - lo (first time) Herr Cuck - oo next will
 3. Next comes a charm - ing pot - pour - ri, en - ti - tled "Love - ly
 4. And then - ah, what a gush of sound will make the for - est
 5. It but re - mains to men - tion that the hall, for this great hall, And with his old po - lite - ness, he in - vites both great and play, But he's so mod - est, in the bush, un - seen, he begs to May;" This, Mess - ieurs Lin - net, Finch, and Sig - nor Wood - peck - er will ring! Fair Night - in - gale's con - cer - to, sung - as she a - lone can day, Has been with flow - 'rets bright - ly deck'd, quite in a nov - el small; The Sig - no - ri - na Lark will sing Her fa - vor - ite mor - ceau, In stay; And then - a lit - tle pause be - tween, should all the guests con - sent, - Miss play; Gay Mad - ame Mag - pie prom - is - es in this piece to be heard; Al - sing! Wild Ech - o may per - suad - ed be th'ac - com - pani - ment to try, - Frogs, way; Then come, true friends of song and joy, and in our feast take part; The that un - ri - valled style (no doubt) which charms the crit - ics so, In Thros - tie's glo - rious trill will rouse de - light - ed won - der - ment; Miss so, should south - ern friends per - mit, Mam - selle the Mock - ing Bird, Al - crick - ets, lo - custs, grass - hop - pers, the cho - rus will sup - ply, Frogs, tick - et of ad - mis - sion is a ge - nial, lov - ing heart, The which de -

Mam - the p a charms

light selle cho ge that un - ri - valled style (no doubt) which charms the crit - ics so.

 Thros - tie's glo - rious trill will rouse de - light - ed won - der - ment.
 so, should south - ern friends per - mit, - Mam - selle the Mock - ing Bird. crick - ets, lo - custs, grass - hop - pers, the cho - rus will sup - ply.
 tick - et of ad - mis - sion is a ge - nial, lov - ing heart.