PREFATORY NOTE.

THE ACADEMY SONG-BOOK is intended to furnish music for all occasions in the daily life of schools and colleges. Its distinguishing feature is the range or variety of its selections. The first division of the book contains national and patriotic songs, especially those that are most suitable for chorus singing. In the second division are school and college songs, including some of the best songs of the great English schools, particularly of Eton and Harrow, and also many of the better songs of our own colleges. The third part contains familiar songs,—some of the songs that will not die and that young people ought to know. The fourth and last division of the book is filled with devotional music. The editor wishes to acknowledge his obligations to Mr. Frederic Reddall and Mr. C. L. Safford, of Brooklyn, and to Prof. George E. Oliver, of Albany, for advice and assistance in the compilation of this book and for permission to use the music accredited to each of them in the body of the work; to Mr. Arthur C. Ainger, of Eton College, Windsor, England, for permission to use the Eton song "Vale," which has been harmonized expressly for this work; to Messrs. Bowen and Howson, of Harrow School, for permission to use their Harrow songs that are in this book; to Gen. Horatio C. King, Rev. J. D. Herron, and Mr. Joseph BenseL for permission to use the music which is accredited to them in the following pages; to Prof. J. P. McCaskey, editor of the Franklin Square Song Collection, for permission to use his arrangements of "Above the Mountains," "The Little Tin Soldier," "Evening Song," "The Blushing Maple Tree," and "The Trees and the Master"; to Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons for permission to use the words of the last-mentioned song, which were written by Sidney Lanier; to Messrs. D. Appleton & Co. for permission to use William Cullen Bryant's poem entitled "As Shadows Cast by Cloud and Sun"; to Mr. U. C. Burnap for permission to use the tune "Baxter"; to Dr. William Ludden for permission to use the tunes "Thalberg" and "Litany" from Ludden's Vocal Class

Book ; to the Oliver Ditson Co. for permission to use Mrs. Howe's "Battle Hymn of the Republic" ; to Houghton, Mifflin & Co. for permission to use the words of the new version of "Hail Columbia" and Longfellow's "Ship of State" ; to Mr. Frank Treat Southwick for permission to use the music of "The Schoolhouse and the Flag," of "Rejoice To-Day," and of "Wake! and Tune Your Youthful Voices" ; to Mr. Arthur Lawrence Brown for permission to use the tune "Glad Light" ; to Martin R.
