1. Je - sus calls us; o'er the tu - mult Of our lie's wild, restless sea,
 2. Je - sus calls us from the wor - ship Of the vain world's golden store,
 3. In our joys and in our sor - rows, Days of toil and hours of ease,
 4. Je - sus calls us; by Thy mer - cies, Sav - iour, may we hear Thy call,

Day by day His sweet voice sound-eth, Say-ing, "Christian, fol - low Me."
 From each i - dol that would keep us, Say-ing, "Christian, love Me more."
 Still He calls, in eares and pleas - ure, "Christian, love Me more than these."
 Give our hearts to Thy o - be-dience, Serve and love Thee best of all.

122 THERE'S A WIDENESS IN GOD'S MERCY

Rev. F. W. Faber

Lizzie S. Tourjee

1. There's a wide - ness in God's mer - cy Like the wide - ness of the sea;
 2. There is wel - come for the sin - ner, And more grac - es for the good;
 3. For the love of God is broad - er Than the meas - ure of man's mind,
 4. If our love were but more sim - ple, We should take Him at His word;

There's a kind - ness in His jus - tice, Which is more than lib - er - ty.
 There is mer - cy with the Sav - iour; There is healing in His blood.
 And the heart of the E - ter - nal Is most won - der - ful - ly kind.
 And our lives would be all sunshine In the sweet - ness of our Lord.

Thomas Hastings

1. From ev - 'ry stormy wind that blows, From ev - 'ry swelling tide of woes,
 2. There is a place where Je-sus sheds The oil of glad - ness on our heads;
 3. There is a scene where spirits blend, Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
 4. Ah! whith-er could we flee for aid, When tempt-ed, des - o - late, dismay-ed?
 5. There, there on ea - gle wings we soar, And sin and sense no - pest no more;

There is a calm, a sur - ret - eat; 'Tis found beneath the mer - cy seat.
 A place than all besides more sweet; It is the blood-bought mer - cy seat.
 The sundered far, by faith they meet Around one com - mon mer - cy seat.
 Or how the hosts of hell de -feat, Had suff - ring saints no mer - cy seat?
 And heav'n comes down our souls to greet, While glory crowns the mer - cy seat. A-men.

EVENING PRAYER

James Edmeston

COPYRIGHT, 1888, BY GEORGE C. STEBBINS

George C. Stebbins

1. Sav-iour, breathe an eve-ning bless-ing, Ere re-pose our spir-it's seal;
 2. Tho' de-struc-tion walk a-round us, Tho' the ar-tous past us fly,
 3. Tho' the night be dark and drear-y, Darkness can-not hide from Thee;
 4. Should swift death this night o'er-take us, And our couch be-come our tomb,

Sin and want we come con-fess-ing: Thou canst save, and Thou canst heal.
 Angel guards from Thee sur-round us; We are safe if Thou art nigh.
 Thou art He who, nev-er wea-ry, Watchest where Thy peo-ple be.
 May the morn in heav'n a-wake us, Clad in light and deathless bloom. AMEN.

The musical score consists of four staves of music in common time (indicated by 'C') and a key signature of one flat (indicated by 'F'). The first two staves are for voices (Soprano and Alto), and the last two are for piano. The lyrics are integrated into the vocal parts. The piano part includes a bass line and harmonic support.

He keeps on lov-ing us still,
 us, lov-ing us still,

lov-ing us still, Come loss or come gain,
 us, lov-ing us still,

Thru sun-shine or rain, He keeps on lov-ing us still.

OUT OF THE PIT

He took me out of the pit, And from the miry clay,
 He set my feet on a rock, Establishing my way;
 He put a song in my mouth, Our God to magnify,
 And He'll take me some day to His home on high.

Or, 6 to 12 counselors can conduct a service, each one taking one or two parts.

O Lord, in whose hands are life and death, by whose power I am sustained, and by whose mercy I am spared, look down upon me with pity. Forgive me that I have until now so much neglected the duty which Thou hast assigned to me, and suffered the days and hours of which I must give account to pass away without any endeavor to accomplish Thy will. Make me to remember, O God, that every day is Thy gift, and ought to be used according to Thy command. Grant me, therefore, so to repent of my negligence, that I may obtain mercy from Thee, and pass the time which Thou shalt yet allow me in diligent performance of Thy commands, through Jesus Christ. Amen.—Samuel Johnson (1709-1784).

Lord, work in my heart a true faith, a purifying hope, and an unfeigned love towards Thee; give me a full trust on Thee, zeal for Thee, reverence of all things that relate to Thee; make me fearful to offend Thee; thankful for Thy mercies, humble under Thy corrections, devout in Thy service, and sorrowful for my sins; and grant that in all things I may behave myself so, as befits a creature to his Creator, a servant to his Lord: . . . make me diligent in all my duties, watchful against all temptations, perfectly pure and temperate, and so moderate in Thy most lawful enjoyments, that they may never become a snare to me; make me also, O Lord, to be so affected towards my neighbor that I never transgress that Royal Law of Thine, of loving him as myself; grant me exactly to perform all parts of justice; yielding to all whatsoever by any kind of right becomes their due, and give me such mercy and compassion, that I may never fail to do all acts of charity to all men, whether friends or enemies, according to Thy command and example. Amen.—Thomas a Kempis (1379-1471).

O God, we thank Thee for this universe, our great home; for its vastness and its riches, and for the manifoldness of the life which seems upon it and of which we are part. We praise Thee for the arching sky and the blessed winds, for the driving clouds and the constellations on high. We praise Thee for the salt sea and the running water, for the everlasting hills, for the trees, and for the grass under our feet. We thank Thee for our senses by which we can see the splendor of the morning, and hear the jubilant songs of love, and smell the breath of the springtime. Grant us, we pray Thee a heart wide open to all this joy and beauty, and save our souls from being so steeped in care or so darkened by passion that we pass heedless and unseeing when even the thornbush by the wayside is aflame with the glory of God. W. R.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father Which art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name, Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done in earth as it is in Heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our transgressions, as we forgive those who transgress against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for Thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, forever. Amen.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into the grave;
the third day He arose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven;
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence
He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy Catholic Church; the Communion of Saints; the Forgiveness of sins; the Resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

BETHANY BLESSING

Accept our gratitude, Lord,
For all the blessings Thou dost give;
Direct and guide our daily paths,
And teach us how to live.
For Jesus' sake, Amen.

200 THE WISE COUNSELOR

Psalm 1

1. Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners; nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

2. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

4. The ungodly are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

9. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

10. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

11. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12. Who can understand his errors? Cleanse thou me from secret faults.

13. Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

14. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

202 THE VOICE OF THE LORD IN THE WOODLANDS

Psalm 29

1. Give unto the Lord, O ye mighty, give unto the Lord glory and strength.

2. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

3. The voice of the Lord is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the Lord is upon many waters.

4. The voice of the Lord is powerful; the voice of the Lord is full of majesty.

5. The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedars; yea, the Lord breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

6. He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.

7. The voice of the Lord divideth the flames of fire.

8. The voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness; the Lord shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

9. The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests; and in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.

10. The Lord sitteth upon the flood; yea, the Lord sitteth King for ever.

11. The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace.

203 THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD

Psalm 23

1. The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

RESPONSIVE READINGS

6. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

204 THE EARTH IS THE LORD'S

Psalm 24

1. The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

2. For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

3. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? Or who shall stand in his holy place?

4. He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

5. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6. This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.

7. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of Glory shall come in.

8. Who is this King of Glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

9. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of Glory shall come in.

10. Who is this King of Glory? The Lord of Hosts, he is the King of Glory. Selah.

205 GOD IS OUR REFUGE

Psalm 46

1. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

2. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

3. Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

4. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most high.

5. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

7. They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

8. O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

9. Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

10. For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11. For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

12. O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

207 A NEW SONG Psalm 96

1. O sing unto the Lord a new song: sing unto the Lord, all the earth.

2. Sing unto the Lord, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day.

3. Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

4. For the Lord is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

5. For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the Lord made the heavens,

6. Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

7. Give unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the Lord glory and strength.

8. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

9. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

10. Say among the heathen that the Lord reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people righteously.

11. Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

12. Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice.

13. Before the Lord: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

208 GOD GIVES STRENGTH

Psalm 91

1. He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2. I will say of the Lord, he is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

3. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of theowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

4. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.
